

JOB POSTING

Environmental Technician - Summer Student

JOB TITLE:	Environmental Technician
REPORTS TO:	Environmental Services Manager
TERM:	Full-time, seasonal position
PAY SCALE:	$20.00 - $25.00 per hour
START DATE:	May 1st, 2025
CLOSING DATE:	As soon as a suitable candidate is found

Position Purpose

The position of Environmental Technician is responsible for environmental sampling activities and associated data management responsibilities. They will report directly to the K'en T'em Environmental Services Manager on all matters pertaining to their employment, including technical issues and concerns, safety issues and concerns, quality assurance, and quality control. The Environmental Technician is expected to be reliable, self-driven, autonomous, confident, and able to work proficiently in a supervised and unsupervised environment. The Environmental Technician is expected to conduct themselves ethically and respect others and is expected to apply an appropriate level of due diligence and care in all aspects of the work.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Be a courageous safety leader, adhere to and sponsor safety and environmental rules and procedures,
- Work closely with clients to ensure regulatory requirements are met,
- Be responsible for implementing and supporting field crew in multiple, broad-based sampling and monitoring programs and collection of chemical, physical and biological tests (water, air, sediment) to confirm compliance and determine environmental conditions,
- Be responsible for the care, routine maintenance, repair, and calibration of monitoring and sample collection equipment and instrumentation,
- Maintain supplies inventory checklist and order supplies as required,
- Carry out environmental data entry, review, and management,
- Liaise with clients for the purposes of facilitating compliance assurance, and
- Perform other responsibilities as assigned or required.

Skills/Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in post-secondary education in an environmental field is considered an asset (Sciences, Geography, Geology, Forestry, etc.),
- Experience in environmental monitoring considered an asset.
- Knowledge of relevant environmental and waste legislation, standards, and effective industry practices (BC Field Sampling Handbook, BC Hydrometric Standards) an asset,

Skills/Qualifications Continued

- Experience with environmental data management software (GIS/EQuIS) and proficiency with Microsoft Office Suite an asset,
- Familiarity with working in an industrial setting is considered an asset,
- Ability to work productively with minimal supervision and work independently in remote locations, and outside in inclement weather conditions,
- Ability to carry equipment (up to 50 lb),
- Ability to work in a fast-paced work environment and manage time effectively,
- Ability to supply Personal Protective Equipment (PPE),
- Hard hat, protective eyewear, high visibility vest and steel toe boots, chest waders, and snowshoes,
- Valid Class 5 driver's license with the ability to safely operate equipment; i.e. 4x4 trucks, boats, augers, snowmobiles, etc., and
- Minimum age of 18, in accordance with the Mines Act 3.2.1.

We will provide training and professional develop to support the right candidate. We believe in growth and curiosity. If you have some of these qualities and believe you would be of value to our organization, then we want to hear from you!

Please submit your cover letter and resume to:

Attn: K'en T'em Human Resources

Email: HR@kentem.ca

In Person: 2025-Unit A Granite Ave, Merritt BC

Mail: PO Box 618, Merritt, BC V1K 1B8

Fax: 250-378-2910

We wish to thank all applicants for their interest and effort in applying for the position; however, only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted. Your application to this posting is deemed to be your consent to the collection, use and necessary disclosure of personal information for the purposes of recruitment. K'en T'em respects the privacy of all applicants and the confidentiality of personal information.