

K'en T'em

JOB POSTING

Geoscientist

JOB TITLE:	Geoscientist
REPORTS TO:	Environmental Services Manager
TERM:	Full-time, permanent position
LOCATION:	Merritt, BC
PAY SCALE:	$90,000 - $110,000 Annually
START DATE:	As soon as a suitable candidate is found

K'en T'em Limited Partnership (KTLP) is a for-profit corporation committed to providing the Nlaka'pamux people of the eight Cixw Nlaka'pamux Assembly (CNA) Participating Bands with the resources that will help them efficiently create, manage and operate business opportunities. We are leaders at putting cross-cultural values at the forefront of our business while prioritizing simple, efficient, integrative solutions that meet the unique needs of our clients.

K'en T'em is seeking a highly motivated and skilled Geoscientist to join our team. As a Geoscientist, you will be responsible for developing and implementing monitoring programs, conducting field investigations, developing management plans, preparing technical reports and presentations, conducting data analysis and interpretation, managing project schedules and budgets, and ensuring compliance with environmental regulations.

Primary Duties

- Conducting detailed geological and geophysical studies and analyses,
- Developing and interpreting geological models using advanced software tools,
- Providing expert recommendations based on geological data to support project development,
- Developing and implementing monitoring programs,
- Conducting modelling and analysis,
- Preparing technical reports and presentations,
- Managing project schedules and budgets,
- Ensuring compliance with environmental regulations,
- Developing workplans and project budgets,
- Supporting and leading field programs,
- Conducting data collection, compilation, analysis and reporting,
- Collaborating with multidisciplinary teams to integrate geological findings into broader project objectives,
- Preparing detailed reports and presentations for clients and stakeholders,

Primary Duties continued on page 2.

Primary Duties Continued

- Conducting environmental monitoring,
- Staying updated with the latest developments in geoscience and apply new techniques to ongoing projects,
- Ensuring all geological activities comply with industry regulations and standards,
- Mentoring staff on reports within company needs,
- Support with writing and submitting permits and authorizations, and
- Other ad hoc duties as assigned by the Environmental Services Manager or designate.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

- Committed to undertaking training to further skills in environmental monitoring, studies, and leadership,
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills,
- Experience with MS Office applications and GIS is considered an asset,
- Positive attitude towards implementing health and safety systems,
- Willingness to travel for work and a valid BC class 5 driver's license,
- Knowledge of nłe?kepmx cultural values, and willingness to learn nłe?kepmx protocols and nłe?kepmxcín,
- Recognizes and respects cultural diversity.

Experience and Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Geology, Geophysics, or a related field,
- Exceptional communication and report writing skills,
- Professional Geoscientist certification,
- Minimum of 5-10 years of experience in geological assessment and project management,
- Current knowledge of BC and Federal legislation, government agencies and permitting procedures,
- Proficiency in geological modeling software such as Petrel, GeoGraphix, or similar,
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills,
- Excellent communication and presentation skills,
- Ability to work independently and part of a collaborative team.

Please submit your cover letter and resume to:

Email: HR@kentem.ca

Subject Line: Application - Geoscientist

In Person: 2025 Granite Ave, Merritt BC

Mail: PO Box 618, Merritt, BC V1K 1B8

Fax: 250-378-2910

A signing bonus may be considered for the right applicant*

We wish to thank all applicants for their interest and effort in applying for the position; however, only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted. Your application to this posting is deemed to be your consent to the collection, use and necessary disclosure of personal information for the purposes of recruitment. K'en T'em respects the privacy of all applicants and the confidentiality of personal information.